

Sylvia attributes the wonderful medical care in Sioux Falls as a reason for her success in beating cancer and encourages everyone to take part in exploring not only yourself but also your options. "Take care of yourself and explore your body and its changes because early detection is best," she advised. With a "don't ignore, explore" attitude, she also counts her many blessings in her family and friends as support both during and after treatment.

sylvia henkin

SURVIVOR SINCE 1999

Look no further.

