

Quick Tip Sheet

Results

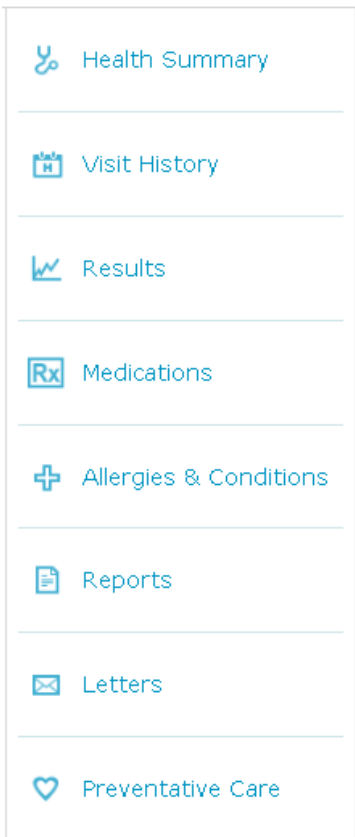

Q – What results will be available?

A – All laboratory and microbiology results will be available in the portal. First select the “Health Record” button from the Home screen.

Then select the “Results” button

Q – When will my Results be available?

A – Your Results will be available immediately once they are resultted and verified by the laboratory.

Q – How far back will my Results be available on the Results page?

A – You will be able to see any laboratory and microbiology results completed at an Avera facility since Jan. 1, 2012.

Q – How do I see historical lab results?

A – The front page of your Results will display laboratory and microbiology results completed at an Avera facility since Jan. 1, 2012. To see historical results select the result you wish to review and you will be able to see all laboratory and microbiology results completed at an Avera facility.

Q – What does the H, N, & L under results mean?

A – Key

- H = High
- L = Low
- N = Normal
- PH = Extra High
- PL = Extra Low
- DH = High with a significant change since it was last resulted
- DL = Low with a significant change since it was last resulted
- DN = Normal with a significant change since it was last resulted

Q – How do I print my lab results?

A – From the home page of the portal, select the Health Record icon. Select the Results option on the right. Select the Print option on the right. From this print preview, select Print. If you want to print an individual test result, select the test, then select Print on the right. From this print preview, select Print.