

Dr. Brian T. Hurley Education Endowment

The Dr. Brian T. Hurley Education Endowment was established for the benefit of employees at Avera McKennan Hospital & University Health Center to support their continuing education. The endowment was established by their children on Jan. 5, 2015 to honor their parents, Dr. Brian T. Hurley and Sheila Fargen Hurley. Children, Meghan M. Hurley Gibbs (Edmund M. Gibbs), Caitlin A. Hurley and Bridgid E. Hurley funded the Dr. Brian T. Hurley Education Endowment to recognize Dr. Hurley's retirement and 41 years of dedicated medical practice, serving 35 years at Avera McKennan and caring for well over 10,000 patients throughout the region. The endowment was created in appreciation for their parents' incredible generosity, support and commitment to education. The Hurleys desire to promote continued education for all Avera McKennan employees to assist them in developing their skills, opening pathways for growth, and nurturing the future leadership of healthcare at Avera McKennan.
